 - (b) all claims and controversies ("Claims") that the Employer may have against CalCPA, and that CalCPA may have against the Employer, which claims arise under or relate to this Subscription Agreement, the Benefit Plan Document and Disclosure Form (if applicable), or the Trust Agreement, shall be resolved by binding arbitration in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Procedures of the American Arbitration Association, except as otherwise provided herein. Each party shall share equally the fees and costs of the arbitrator. Either party may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to compel arbitration hereunder and to enforce an arbitration award. The Employer and CalCPA agree that, except as otherwise provided in this paragraph 1, neither of them shall initiate nor prosecute any lawsuit or other proceeding in any way related to a claim covered by this Subscription Agreement. The provisions of this paragraph 1 do not apply to any claim subject to arbitration under the Benefit Plan Document and Disclosure Form.

Coverage for such persons may be delayed or denied if enrollment forms are not submitted in a timely manner. In addition, the employer agrees to timely update the Agent regarding any changes (including without limitation terminations and changes in Dependents' status) in the information supplied on this Subscription Agreement or, if known to the employer, on any enrollment forms

- 5) The employer agrees to make contributions to the Trust in the amount, at the time or times, and in the manner specified from time to time by the Board of Trustees. Note: Any failure by the employer to pay contributions in a timely manner may result in an irrevocable lapse of coverage, without any prior notice of delinquency. Failure to make timely pay contributions will result in the termination of this Subscription Agreement with applicable claims and fee liability.
